Indian Development Bonds

951. SHRI S. AUSTIN:
SHRI GUNDAPPA KORWAR:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have received complaints from Non-Resident Indians about problems being created by income tax authorities over loans from scheduled banks in India against collateral security of India Development Bonds;

(b) if so, tlie details thereof ; and

(c) the corrective steps being taken by Government?

THE MINISTER OF STA THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEK AR A MURTHY): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) A complaint dated 24-1 [-1993 was received by Government of India that Indian Income Tax Authorities were asking Indian firms and companies who had been advanced loans by Scheduled Banks in India against collateral security of India Development Bonds pledged by Non-Residen! Indians and Overseas Corporate Bodies to disclose the names and particulars of the holders of India Development Bonds. It was contended that this was against the immunity granted to Non-Resident Indian, under the Remittances of Foreign Exchange and Investment in Foreign Exchange Bonds (Immunities & Exemptions) Act, 1991.

(c) In their letter dated 16-12-93 to the complainant, copies of which were sent to the IncomeTax authorities the Central Board of Direct Taxes clarified that once a scheduled bank certifies in writing that the loan has been taken against the collateral security of India Development Bonds beloging to a Non-Resident 1 Iidian, an Overseas Corporate Body, or a Bank holding India Development Bonds in a fiduciary capaci y or against collateral security of such India development Bonds gifted to an Indian citizen,the Indian income Tax authorities are precluded from instituting further inquiries.

Subsequently, on 21-3-1994, tlie Central ^oard of Direct Taxes further clarified that the Income Tax authorities will, however be free to inquire from the Indian resident availing the loan from a bank the consideration, if any paid to the bank or to the holder of security for arranging nnd providing the collateral security and the terms of this arrangement.
